October Newsletter 2021
Second Baptist Church
Washington, NC

“Hello Americans, I’m Paul Harvey” That is how memorable radio host Paul Harvey began his radio show. He also is the one who coined the phrase “now you know the rest of the story!” That is the nostalgia that comes to mind when I hear his name.

We are coming to a nostalgic time at 2nd Baptist Church. As we enter the first full month of Autumn, (Fall for us country folks), October means a lot for our Church. For the first time in a couple of years, 2nd Baptist will celebrate Homecoming 2021. It will be a remarkable event that should bring joy, tears, and expectation to all our hearts and minds. As we come together for singing, preaching, communion and “dinner on the grounds”, well in the fellowship Hall, it will stir up memories of years past and conjure up visions of ministry in the years ahead. I hope all of you will be able to bring your memories, expectations and a good appetite for food and fellowship.

October will also be a busy time for us,
New church officers, committees and teachers will be elected
We will be voting on a constitutional amendment
The SRBA annual meeting
Halloween fellowship for the community
5th Sunday Song Sermon
And a 5th Sunday Night Singing with both church and guest singers.

Buckle up, and let’s share this time together and bring someone with you. “Now you know the rest of the story.”

Garry Mickey
