The world moves into the month of May with hopes of warmth and the emergence of blooms, blossoms, and gardens. In the spring of 1863, hymn writer Folliot S. Pierpoint reflects on this with the words,

“For the beauty of the earth,
for the glory of the skies,
for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies.

Christ, our Lord, to you we raise
this, our hymn of grateful praise.”

We also welcome in May with a reminder of the importance of motherhood and the family.

Pierpoint also reflects on this in the third stanza of his hymn:

For the joy of human love,
brother, sister, parent, child,
friends on earth, and friends above,
for all gentle thoughts and mild,
Christ, our Lord, to you we raise
this, our hymn of grateful praise.

Scripture puts it this way:

“A gracious woman gets honor...” – Proverbs 11:16

“Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come. She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.”

– Proverbs 31:25-28

May this May and May’s Mother’s Day bring happy memories of warm spring days, family, and moms.

Now we ask you, brothers and sisters, to acknowledge those who work hard among you, who care for you in the Lord and who admonish you. Hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Live in peace with each other.
