Church Chuckle

At the end of the school year, a kindergarten teacher was receiving gifts from her pupils. The florist's son handed her a gift. She shook it, held it overhead, and said, "I'll bet I know what it is: some flowers."

"That's right!" the boy said. "How did you know?"

"Oh, just a wild guess," the teacher answered.

The next pupil was the candy-store owner's daughter. The teacher held her gift overhead, shook it, and said, "I'll bet this is a box of sweets."

"How did you know?" the little girl asked.

"Oh, just a wild guess," answered the teacher.

The next gift was from the son of the liquor store owner. The teacher held the package overhead, but it was leaking. She touched a drop of the leakage with her finger and touched it to her tongue. "Is it wine?" she asked with a smile. "No-o-o-o," the little boy replied with some excitement. The teacher repeated the process, taking a larger drop of the leakage on her tongue, "Is it champagne?" "No-o-o-o," the excited boy replied. The teacher said, "I give up. What is it?" With great glee the little boy shouted, "It's a puppy!"
